

Senior Managers of China VoIP & Digital Telecom Inc. participated in torch relay of China's 11th National Games.

Mr. Li Kunwu, Chairman and CEO of CVDT and Mr. Wang Qinghua, General Manger of CVDT were honorably invited to participate in the torch relay of China's 11th National Games. They were the 48th and 59th torchbearers, respectively.

Jinan Yinquan Technology Co., Ltd. (Yinquan) has seen healthy growth in recent years. Its products and solutions, recognized by many provincial and city-level government officials, have received numerous awards. Yinquan's virtualization technology and IBCC (International Business Communication Center) service platform were endorsed as the designated virtualization application product and the designated communication platform at the China's 11th National Games. The participation of torch relay and the sponsorship of the National Games have offered great opportunities to promote Yinquan's brands and products.

Mr. Li Kunwu in the torch relay

Mr. Wang Qinghua in the torch relay

“Yinquan Virtualization Cup” – CVDT's Subsidiary Sponsored the Men's Weightlifting Competition of China's 11th National Games

The Men's Weightlifting Competition (Yinquan Virtualization Cup) was held in Jinan Huangting Stadium on October 23 and 24, 2009 during the China's National Games. As a sponsor of the National Games, Yinquan's virtualization technology and IBCC services platform have been endorsed as the designated virtualization application technology product and the designated communication services platform, respectively.

Yinquan implemented the virtualization technology in the National Games dedicated data center, to reduce system purchasing and operating costs. It also improved the reliability and manageability of the system and safeguard information throughout the National Games. In addition, IBCC services platform was run as the sub-website of the National Games' official website for athletes, coaches, staffs, volunteers and sponsors to enjoy unified communication services including OA system, telephone, SMS, email, fax, conference calls and video conferencing.

This sponsorship was also a great opportunity for Yinquan to promote its brand and products. The company's logo and slogans were seen in the stadium. Yinquan's staffs were also cheering for the athletes during the two day competition. Both the CEO and General Manager of the company were granted the opportunity to award the champions in the games.

Contact us

For more information, please contact Great Wall Research LLC

Telephone: (203) 536-1928

E-mail: info@greatwallresearch.com